Charlie, Carol and Dick are mad fans of Lady Lo-Ro, the most sensational singer of all time. They want to dress like her, do their hair like her, talk like her, and be as cool as her. Now they've got the chance to travel to New York and meet her, but they only have two tickets. What will happen? A highly visual and fun show intentionally staged to make sure the audience doesn't miss a thing. It also includes catchy songs, impossible situations and crazy characters. Use all the resources we have on offer to create the most fun English lesson of the year.
