Who has ever been able to resist the magic and charm of a story that has made entire generations dream?

Tinker Bell, Peter Pan, Captain Hook and sweet Wendy return to the stage as the unforgettable stars of an adventure full of fantasy, excitement and fun. A vibrant musical in English that will delight the youngest children at school while they experience, almost without realising it, one of the most magical English lessons of the year.

> Perfect for...

To learn English in a meaningful way, while reinforcing values such as friendship, courage, imagination and self-confidence.

> Don't miss...

Don't miss its songs and great musical numbers, which will fill the theatre with all the excitement of the adventure.

> Did you know?

In 1929, J. M. Barrie gave the rights to the work to Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children in London. Since then, for decades, productions, adaptations and licences of Peter Pan have helped support the work of this children's hospital.
