Nobody's Perfect

Didactic Project elaborated by
Nawaf Mumen González

Follow the music that takes you to the dance floor of this absurd comedy, making your pupils burst into laughter. In the best English adapted for them, they will learn that it is not being the best at something that matters, and that what is really important is to do things with enthusiasm, have fun, and enjoy them. They just have to try to learn the steps... and go with the flow.
